REMARKABLE AFTERPARTY LOOKS BY BOSS AT THE 2025 MET GALA®

Ashley Graham and Khaby Lame dazzled beyond the red carpet in custom afterparty looks by BOSS

Following their show-stopping appearances on the Met Gala® red carpet, Ashley Graham and Khaby Lame each revealed perfectly tailored, BOSS-designed afterparty looks to carry on the celebration of fashion's biggest night.

In keeping with the red-carpet styles worn by Graham and Lame, their bespoke afterparty outfits also harmonized with the "Tailored for You" theme of the night—in step with the BOSS brand's core strength in custom tailoring.

Model Ashley Graham's afterparty ensemble echoed her elegant, 90s-inspired suit-style dress from earlier in the evening. While slightly more pared-back, her elegant custom outfit comprised a flattering pencil skirt with a matching bandeau top, both crafted from a shiny, gray satin-crepe fabric.

Switching into more casual gear from his dandy red-carpet suit, Khaby Lame's afterparty look reflected the social-media star's sense of fun and easygoing style. Designed as a tribute to rap group Run-D.M.C., his custom BOSS evening ensemble comprised a club-collar white shirt worn under a houndstooth-patterned wool tracksuit jacket with a side stripe. His matching tailored trousers had an elasticated drawstring waist. Lame topped off his look with a black tie, a gold-toned chain and pendant from BOSS Jewelry, and croc-embossed, black leather sneakers.
